

View D - Proposed

Current

Swans and other bird species frequent the freshwater spring outflow that enters the river at this location. The proposed works will enhance and protect this outflow through the planting of native rushes and sedges, and by restricting public access to this section of the beach. A publicly accessible beach will be retained adjacent to the existing Coode Street Boat Ramp.