

Additional Information

In order to achieve meaningful results in any organisation, large or small it is vital that everyone is treated with respect. In the case of the City of South Perth it is important that all Councillors do their best to seek out conciliation rather than confrontation.

If elected, I will do my part in creating a positive and respectful chamber where rate-payers can see that issues and concerns are dealt with fairly and consistently.