EOI open for arts and events in 2018 >

The City is inviting expressions of interest from visual and performing artists, event organisers, community groups and businesses who would like to be part of the City's arts, events and culture programme, running from February to April 2018. EOIs close 27 October 2017. For further information and to apply visit the City's website.

Hard waste collection and asbestos disposal >

The City's annual hard waste collection has commenced and will finish 20 November 2017. Please assist the City by placing hard rubbish on your own verge and into separate piles: metals, whitegoods, mattresses, e-waste and general waste. Four cubic metres of waste will be collected from each residence.

The City's next Asbestos Disposal Day will be on Saturday 28 October 2017 from 10am-2pm at the City's Recycling Centre, Cnr Hayman Rd and Thelma St, Como.

To find out more and to view collection dates for your suburb visit the Residents section of the City's website.

2018 Community Citizen of the Year Awards >

The City invites you to tell us who makes your community a better place. Nominations are now open for the 2018 Citizen of the Year Awards. These state-wide awards are designed to recognise and reward local residents and groups for their significant contribution to community life and active participation in local projects. Nominations close 31 October 2017. To find out more visit the Community section of the City's website.

Carers 'slow down' luncheon >

Local carers are invited to a free high-tea style lunch at Lifestreams Church in Como 11am-1pm, Saturday 21 October 2017. Supported by Lotterywest and Carers WA, the event coincides with National Carers Week to recognise and celebrate the outstanding contribution unpaid carers make in our community. Visit the City's website to register by Friday 13 October 2017.
