Author:	Amanda Albrecht, Governance Officer
Reporting Officer:	Cliff Frewing, Chief Executive Officer

Summary

This report outlines the statutory process for electing a Deputy Mayor.

Officer Recommendation

That the Council elects a Deputy Mayor in accordance with the Local Government Act 1995.

Election of Deputy Mayor - Nominations

The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) reported that written nominations for the position of Deputy Mayor had been received from Councillor Sharron Hawkins-Zeeb, Councillor Fiona Reid and Councillor Glenn Cridland, who all nominated themselves. The CEO advised that Councillor Hawkins-Zeeb had since withdrawn her nomination. He stated that as this still left two nominations that a ballot would be conducted.

The Mayor invited Councillor Reid and Councillor Cridland to both give a short address regarding their nomination to the position of Deputy Mayor.

Ballet for position of Deputy Mayor

The CEO distributed, then collected and counted the ballot papers with the assistance of John Collins (Former Mayor). The result of the ballot was:

- Councillor Fiona Reid (4)
- Councillor Glenn Cridland (5)

John Collins announced that, as a result of the ballot, Councillor Glenn Cridland was elected as Deputy Mayor.

Declaration of Office of Deputy Mayor

John Hardwick, Former Mayor and Honorary Freeman of the City, conducted the Declaration of Office Ceremony for the position of Deputy Mayor.

Background

At the first Council meeting held after the October 2013 Local Government Election, the first item on the Agenda is the election of the Deputy Mayor. This report outlines the process for electing the Deputy Mayor in accordance with Section 2.15 and Schedule 2.3 of the Local Government Act 1995 (the Act).

Comment

The Deputy Mayor is responsible for assuming the responsibilities of Mayor in the Mayor's absence, including the chairing of Council meetings, and attendance of public functions.

Conduct of the election

Under clause 7 of Schedule 2.3 of the Act, where the position of Mayor is not the subject of an election by the Council, the election of the Deputy Mayor is the first matter to be dealt with at the first meeting of Council after an Ordinary Election.

Nominations

Nominations, in writing, are to be submitted to the person conducting the meeting either before the meeting or during the meeting before the close of nominations. Nominations close at the meeting at a time announced by the person conducting the election, which must be a time that is sufficient after the opening of nominations to allow written nominations to be submitted. If a Councillor is nominated by another Councillor, then the Councillor nominated must consent to the nomination.

Ballot Papers

Once nominations have closed, the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) prepares ballot papers in accordance with the prescribed form. The CEO must authenticate the ballot paper by initialling the back of the ballot paper. The order of names appearing on the ballot paper will be in alphabetical order. The CEO may replace a ballot paper if the CEO is satisfied the ballot paper has been spoilt.

Voting

Councillor voting is conducted in secret and Councillors vote by placing a tick in the box opposite the name of the candidate whom the Councillor wishes to be elected. A Councillor must vote in secret and must mark the ballot paper in a manner that it cannot be seen by anyone else. The CEO may assist Councillors to mark their ballot papers if they require assistance. The completed ballot papers are returned to the CEO.

Counting of the votes

The CEO is to count the votes on the basis of 'first past the post' voting. If votes are tied then the matter is referred to a Special Council meeting to be held no more than 7 days later.

Declaration of the election

The person conducting the election is to declare the result of the election.

Record of the election

The CEO must retain a record of the election for a period of at least four years following the election.

This means that the tenure of all previous committee members has ended and the Council must consider the future committee membership.

Section 5.10(4) of the Act provides that the Council must appoint the Mayor to each Committee if they inform the City of their wish to be a member of a particular Committee. The Committee, once appointed, must select a Chair.

Comment

This Committee oversees the quarterly reviews of the CEO's performance and conducts annual performance reviews for the CEO.

The terms of reference (reviewed/adopted May 2010) of the CEO Evaluation Committee are to:

- (i) To oversee Council's only staff function, that being the performance review and management of the Chief Executive Officer.
- (ii) At all times to act in the best interests of the City whilst ensuring the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness are met.

Policy and Legislative Implications

Establishment of Committees is in accordance with section 5.11 of the Local Government Act 1995 which provides that the tenure of a committee member ceases at each ordinary Election Day.

Financial Implications

There are no financial implications associated with the appointment of the Council Committees. Councillors do not receive additional payments for attendance at these meetings.
