NEIL ELLIOTT Artist and Curator

Neil Elliott is a multi-award winning Perth hills based painter and sculptor. His work is usually mixed media and created with a sense of humor. Neil draws his inspiration from history, engineering, his dreams and the many interesting objects found in his studio.

In 2016 Neil won the Packer's Prize for his painting "Bathroom Intruders" at the Perth Royal Show. In 2017 he undertook a state-wide touring exhibition of his sculptures with ART ON THE MOVE.

Neil is also the curator of the 2017 Emerging Artist Award Exhibition.

JUDY ROGERS Artist

Born in Budapest, Judy has been based in Perth since 1995. She is an award-winning artist who has gained attention with her disarming portraits and depictions of overlooked domestic subjects.

Judy has had ten solo exhibitions in Australia and one in Hungary and has been involved in many curated exhibitions. Judy was awarded the City of Joondalup Inside Out Billboard commission and City of Wanneroo ANZAC commission plus represented Australia at the 2016 G20 Summit International Art Exhibition in Hangzhou China. Judy still works freelance for art events and also teaches visual art to secondary school students and adults.

MARK PARFITT Artist and Course Coordinator Fine Art, Curtin University

Mark is a practicing artist and educator who has exhibited in a number of group and solo exhibitions and residencies. He has received numerous grants from national and state institutions including the Australia Council and the Department of Culture and the Arts (WA). His work is part of several state and private collections including the State Library of Western Australia, John Curtin Gallery and City of Joondalup. Mark has a Bachelor of Arts (Social Science) from Edith Cowan University, a Master of Arts (Visual Art) from Curtin University and is currently the Course Coordinator of Fine Art at Curtin University.
